Smart Again Will Head Board As Busy Meet Held

Many Issues Settled During Annual Session Of Board Here

Reg Smart was reelected president of the governing board of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District at the annual reorganization meeting held July 1 for the 1956-57 fiscal year. Herbert Obexer of Homewood, who was appointed to succeed Denis Sachs of Tahoe City who resigned, was named Clerk while the newest member of the board. Byron Miller of Floriston board, Byron Miller of Floriston chairman.

Considerable business, including adoption of the tentative budget occupied the meeting of the board last Thursday. A hearing on the budget will be held early in August.

Following discussions, the board voted to employ a second teacher at the Donner Trail school for an anticipated enrollment of 33 children, five of whom will come from the Lake Spaulding district. The Nevada City elementary district will be asked to assist in the additional pay for the teacher and the transportation.

It was also voted to accept the enrollment of children living in Nevada in the kindergarten at Kings Beach on a one-year basis and provided the enrollment was made by August 1st. Parents will be required to return their children from the school at noon but the bus would bring them to the school in the morning.

The possibility that the radio-telephones will be removed from the buses appeared likely when the cost, in excess of $100 per month, was discussed and the board was advised that the trial during the past year was not satisfactory.

The board cancelled all existing insurance policies on the districts property and authorized a new agent, Allen Lewis to rewrite the policy covering the $1,236,095 under a five-year premium costing $5,842.15, payable annually.

Under new state legislation, the board voted to allow a total of five month's maternity leaves for certified personnel, three months prior to the birth of their child and two months after. All maternity leaves expire at the end of the school year. The teacher on maternity leave would receive no salary.

A rate of 10 cents per mile for parents required to transport their children to a bus stop or school was voted unanimously.

It was agreed to permit El-Ta-Ho Shrine Club the use of buses to transport children to the Shrine Circus in Reno, the club to pay the drivers.

It was voted to submit and prepare for bidding a notice calling for clearing and leveling the grounds at the Kings Beach school for a playground.

Bids from various oil companies offering gasoline at the county price of .2284 cents per gallon were received and the business will go to the different companies.

Mrs. Margaret Madden of Kings Beach was offered her old job as bookkeeper and accounting clerk for the district. The board also agreed to employ R. S. Bailey as teacher at the Donner Trail school and accepted the resignation of Herb Copeland as bus driver. Miss Barbara Kemp was employed as part-time clerk. Miss Linda Loynd and Miss Judy O'Niell were employed as assistants for Miss Betty Raker in the summer swimming classes.

Harry Woodard, Sonda Tremayne and Judy Loynd were employed for part time work as library assistants during the summer months.

BE CAREFUL WITH FIRE!
Keep California Forests Green

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

The two-acre forest fire within half a mile of Truckee's business district Monday should serve as a vivid reminder that the fire season is upon us and that now, more than ever, extreme caution must be exercised by everyone using the woods. As the season advances, the dangers increase and while the four fires reported this season have been small, they might easily have become raging infernos had they not been checked immediately. Most people who live in the forest area are alert to the tragedy of forest fires but often get careless. Visitors, who have never witnessed the major fire in the woods and have no idea of the damage caused, should be warned that all big fires start from a spark or tiny flame, often discarded from a passing car or by a thoughtless hiker. Campfires left unattended are a constant hazard. As a matter of fact, every kind of fire, regardless of its apparent harmlessness is a potential forest fire. By all means, be sure that you are not the one to start a forest fire and caution others of the extreme danger in carelessness.

Forest Fire Near Truckee Brings Out Large Crew

Children With Matches May Have Started First Major Fire

Forest service officials are investigating the possibility that the fire which swept over two acres of timber and brush land on the hill above the James McIver home, half a mile northwest of Truckee Monday afternoon, was started by children playing with matches.

Starting about 1 p.m., the fire, fanned by a brisk west wind was sweeping directly toward Truckee when discovered. Within a matter of minutes, three trucks from the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department, four from the forest service stations at Truckee and Lake Tahoe and a caterpillar operated by James McIver were on the scene.

This equipment, augmented by a crew of between 60 and 100 men, had the fire controlled by 3 p.m.

It marked the fourth fire in the Truckee district this summer and forest service officials are issuing warnings that more precaution will be required to prevent this from being one of the worst fire seasons in the records.

Fire No. 3 occurred opposite the fish hatchery at Tahoe City last Friday when a carelessly tossed cigarette or lighted match ignited the tinder-dry grass along the highway. The flames did little damage and were soon extinguished by the Tahoe suppression crew.

Rotary Speakers Ask Emerald Span

TAHOE CITY— Four speakers at the meeting of the Tahoe City Rotary Club turned their big guns on opposition to a bridge to span Emerald Bay and strongly urged that action be taken immediately to correct this sorry and costly condition.

Vern Hoffman of Lodi, a former state senator suggested that individuals vacationing at the lake or who own property there but have residence in another part of the state, send letters to their state represenatives urging them to assist state representatives urging them to assist State Senator Swift Berry, Senator H. T. Johnson, Assemblyman Francis Lindsay and others in procuring the much needed span.

The former law maker said this was one of the most effective methods of arousing legislative interest and pointed out that with opposition from powerful state agencies, such as beaches and parks, the sponsoring legislators will need all the help they can muster.

Bishop Noel Porter declared that an artistic bridge over the mouth of the bay would lend to rather than detract from the beauty of the area. He said some of the most beautiful spots in Europe where he recently visited were made more ornate and attractive by bridges designed to fit into the landscape.

George Kehlet, prominent Meeks Bay resort owner and one of the staunch supporters of the bridge project, discussed the damage caused by the lack of passage over the west side of the lake and how it is effecting business generally.

Don Huff, president of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce, another ardent bridge supporter, told of the work being done by that organization to have the needed repair made.

Steve Korich presided at the interesting session.

AFFAIRS OF STATE
by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Some interesting facts and figures will be released to the public within a short time in the annual report of Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, whose "Crime in California —1955" will show that there was a downward trend in crime on an overall basis in that year, as there was in 1954, but the latter half of the year indicated a "leveling off" period.

"It appears entirely possible," said the attorney general, "that an upswing may be expected in 1956."

Brown said the state had slight increases, per 100,000 population, in 1953 over 1952, and again in 1954 over 1953. The decreases noted in 1955 over 1954 seemed hopeful, he declared, until the latter months of 1955 showed the upswing.

"Our report," said Brown, "states that the one acceptable conclusion is that serious crime, as reflected in the prosecution of criminal defendants, was about 15 percent less in 1955 than in 1954, and was also lower than the indices would indicate in 1953.

"This would be cheering news if it weren't for the indications in the later months of 1955 that a leveling off was in process."

However, he said, the rate of incidence in the seven major crimes showed an overall reduction of one percent over that of 1954. The report shows the slightest decrease to be nine-tenth percent in the mountainous counties, with San Joaquin Valley showing a reduction of 7.5 percent.

"There were increases of five percent in Alameda County, and 26.2 percent in the Bay Area counties, outside of Alameda and San Francisco counties.

"San Francisco county shows 16.4 percent increase and ten counties in the Sacramento Valley disclose a one and a half percent decrease.

"Southern California is on the minus side of the ledger, Los Angeles county being down five percent, and nine other Southern California counties, 3.3 percent."

Auto thefts, however, showed a ten percent increase, the report will say, although the decline in other crimes left the state with its one percent decrease. Assault was up two percent, but all other categories showed declines. Robbery declined eleven percent and ordinary theft was down five percent.

"There's a great discrepancy," said Brown, "between the increase in automobile thefts by ten percent and the minus thirteen percent recorded in adult felony arrests.

"This is due to the fact that a great many of the automobile thefts were committed by juveniles who are not listed in the adult prosecutions.

"This brings into top consideration the growth of juvenile violence, which the attorney general's citizens' advisory committee on crime is studying.

"The youngsters have shown a trend to beating up passersby for no reason at all. Or, they have gone in for wantonly ripping up upholstery and destroying appliances in automobiles, which they have stolen.

"There's something very amiss among the juvenile fringe involved in these tactics. We must find out the cause, and then the cure."

Undoubtedly, more skilful attention to law enforcement is one of the reasons for a crime decrease, for it is generally conceded now-a-days that the chances of escaping detectin are much less than they were in the past.

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

by Ethel Joslin Vernon

Progress

Progress is really moving on through the Little Town Beside the Lake, and picking up speed every tday. We hear that someone prophesied that within the next five years all the lakeshore communities are likely to be built solidly into one continuous city completely around the lake. We begin to believe this may come to pass, after again looking over the recent construction going on north and south of town for several miles, as well as within the Tahoe City limits. Within the past several months many new home-site tracts have been opened up between here and the California-Nevada line to the north as well as between Tahoe City and Emerald Bay to the south, and many new homes have been built along the highway and the mountain slopes.

New Stations

Here in town two or three new service stations are in the planning, as well as a large new motel and cottage court now nearing completion at either end of town. Another project pending on upper Grove Street is expected to start construction in the very near future. Two lots, formerly owned by the Pomin family, have been purchased recently by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the latest report is that early in 1957 the telephone central headquarters and dial offices will be built there. Down near the lakeshore on lower Grove Street a sizable strip of business property still awaits the close of a controversy over off-street parking rules, before building activity can make progress there.

Building Razed

During the past week, on the cliff side of Front Street in the heart of town the oldest building left in this vicinity has been razed to clear another piece of property for new business. It was the first home here of the well known pioneer, R. M. Watson, and the property was recently sold by his son Robert H. Watson, to Dr. S. M. Dingwall, summer resident here. The old house was built in 1880, according to a very old photograph of the building with the date of building on it, which was given to us several years ago by the late Mrs. Mattie Sumpter, who in the old days was a neighbor of the Watsons. The old building had been used as a home, in later years, by several of the older resident families here, and mainly because of this there was some sentiment attached to it. In fact, as we watched the grey old house being torn apart and heard the creaking and groaning of severed timbers— we felt almost as though we witnessed the destruction of an old friend. For our own family temporarily used it as a home at one time, and later it housed our business here for more than twenty years. Still we realize that now at last the time had come when the old house with its clump of young green aspens standing on the cliff, was only blocking the path of progress, and so they (like an ancient monarch and his personal staff) were all laid low together.

Views Slide

One day recently our curiosity got the better of us and we drove out to the spot on the Emerald Bay grade where a barricade is stretched across the road to keep cars from driving into the slide area. From there we walked down into the curve of the bay road where we could clearly inspect the destruction caused by the giant avalanche which swept from the steep, high mountain there several months ago. We found the monstrous slide just as bad as formerly described to us. As near as we could judge, about eight hundred feet long from where it broke free near the mountain's top, to the bottom where it stacked the trees, boulders and tons of earth into the waters of the bay. It seems between three and four hundred feet wide where it struck the highway, widening out more on the rest of the way down. We are just an amature observor, (with very good eyesight) and to us the project of constructing a new highway around that mountainside again looks like something very closely related to IMPOSSIBILITY.

Sign Inadequate

It should be suggested here, in the interest of summer auto travel, which grows heavier every day along the lake highways, that the one road sign which mentions the slide area is definately insufficient and is posted in the wrong place to really do any good. It stands just south of the bridge from Tahoe City across the river, at the beginning of highway 89. It says "Road Closed By Slide", but does not mention that the slide is some twelve miles farther on around the lake circle drive. There is no other sign or indication of blocked highway along that twelve miles. If the sign was set farther along the highway and mentioned the distance to the slide area, or if there were other signs along the way giving the distance, it would undoubtedly save many travelers useless miles of driving and a lot of gasoline. On our trip to the slide area, during the few minutes we were there, eight car loads of tourists inquired of us "Why is this road baricaded? and how do we get around to highway 50?"

The summer session of the Sacramento State College will again open here for the season on July 9th and continue till August 17th. Headquarters will be at the Tahoe Lake School and classes will be held there on week days in the following studies: Art, Music, Life Science and Speech and Drama. Registration may be made there for entering any of these classes at any time between 8 and 10 a.m. on July 9th or 23rd or August 6th. Anyone seeking housing accommodations here during the summer session may be able to acquire information on same through the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce.

The summer faculty will include the following professors: Paul Beckman, Associate Professor of Art and coordinator of the session, Dr. Richard A. Carpenter, Music; Dr. L. Livezey, Life Science; Dr. Carl A. Thomas, Speech-Drama.

Activities and classes will enter throughout the session in the fields of art-education, music, nature study and dramatics. There will be opportunity for learning to draw, paint and to work with a number of artistic media. Nature lovers, furnished with a guide, will be able to follow the mountain trails and acquire a fuller understanding of the wild life, verdure and geology of the Tahoe area. There will also be opportunity for students interested in dramatics to get in some practice by acting and assisting in drama productions to be put on at the Tahoe Lake School Theater.

Goebel Visits

The noted motion picture actor, George Goebel, who recently visited at Tahoe, confessed this week that he found this region irresistable and fell deeply in love with its matchless scenery. He has just returned for a night club engagement on TV and is spending a week at Cal-Neva on the lakeshore at the state line.

Visit Lake

Regular summer residents, Helen and Henry Aldrich with their sons, Hanko Jr. and George, came up last week from their home at "Walk-In-Neigh Farm" near Lincoln, and are settled for the season in their summer place near Tahoma. Having a lot of fun these sunny days in their fast boat "Four-Fun". Mrs. Aldrich is the former Helen Towne whose family owned one of the first homes ever built on the lakeshore here. Other members of her family who have opened their summer homes nearby recently are Mrs. Lindsay Towne Clegg, with her husband Harding Clegg and family from Santa Rosa, and Mrs. Arlene Towne Hotle and family of Piedmont.

Home Opened

The summer lodge of the late Mrs. Wm. Ellery Briggs was opened this week by her daughter, Mrs.

AFFAIRS OF STATE
by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Some interesting facts and figures will be released to the public within a short time in the annual report of Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, whose "Crime in California —1955" will show that there was a downward trend in crime on an overall basis in that year, as there was in 1954, but the latter half of the year indicated a "leveling off" period.

"It appears entirely possible," said the attorney general, "that an upswing may be expected in 1956."

Brown said the state had slight increases, per 100,000 population, in 1953 over 1952, and again in 1954 over 1953. The decreases noted in 1955 over 1954 seemed hopeful, he declared, until the latter months of 1955 showed the upswing.

"Our report," said Brown, "states that the one acceptable conclusion is that serious crime, as reflected in the prosecution of criminal defendants, was about 15 percent less in 1955 than in 1954, and was also lower than the indices would indicate in 1953.

"This would be cheering news if it weren't for the indications in the later months of 1955 that a leveling off was in process."

However, he said, the rate of incidence in the seven major crimes showed an overall reduction of one percent over that of 1954. The report shows the slightest decrease to be nine-tenth percent in the mountainous counties, with San Joaquin Valley showing a reduction of 7.5 percent.

"There were increases of five percent in Alameda County, and 26.2 percent in the Bay Area counties, outside of Alameda and San Francisco counties.

"San Francisco county shows 16.4 percent increase and ten counties in the Sacramento Valley disclose a one and a half percent decrease.

"Southern California is on the minus side of the ledger, Los Angeles county being down five percent, and nine other Southern California counties, 3.3 percent."

Auto thefts, however, showed a ten percent increase, the report will say, although the decline in other crimes left the state with its one percent decrease. Assault was up two percent, but all other categories showed declines. Robbery declined eleven percent and ordinary theft was down five percent.

"There's a great discrepancy," said Brown, "between the increase in automobile thefts by ten percent and the minus thirteen percent recorded in adult felony arrests.

"This is due to the fact that a great many of the automobile thefts were committed by juveniles who are not listed in the adult prosecutions.

"This brings into top consideration the growth of juvenile violence, which the attorney general's citizens' advisory committee on crime is studying.

"The youngsters have shown a trend to beating up passersby for no reason at all. Or, they have gone in for wantonly ripping up upholstery and destroying appliances in automobiles, which they have stolen.

"There's something very amiss among the juvenile fringe involved in these tactics. We must find out the cause, and then the cure."

Undoubtedly, more skilful attention to law enforcement is one of the reasons for a crime decrease, for it is generally conceded now-a-days that the chances of escaping detectin are much less than they were in the past.

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

Progress

Progress is really moving on through the Little Town Beside the Lake, and picking up speed every tday. We hear that someone prophesied that within the next five years all the lakeshore communities are likely to be built solidly into one continuous city completely around the lake. We begin to believe this may come to pass, after again looking over the recent construction going on north and south of town for several miles, as well as within the Tahoe City limits. Within the past several months many new home-site tracts have been opened up between here and the California-Nevada line to the north as well as between Tahoe City and Emerald Bay to the south, and many new homes have been built along the highway and the mountain slopes.

Here in town two or three new service stations are in the planning, as well as a large new motel and cottage court now nearing completion at either end of town. Views Slide

One day recently our curiosity got the better of us and we drove out to the spot on the Emerald Bay grade where a barricade is stretched across the road to keep cars from driving into the slide area. From there we walked down into the curve of the bay road where we could clearly inspect the destruction caused by the giant avalanche which swept from the steep, high mountain there several months ago. We found the monstrous slide just as bad as formerly described to us. As near as we could judge, about eight hundred feet long from where it broke free near the mountain's top, to the bottom where it stacked the trees, boulders and tons of earth into the waters of the bay. It seems between three and four hundred feet wide where it struck the highway, widening out more on the rest of the way down. We are just an amature observor, (with very good eyesight) and to us the project of constructing a new highway around that mountainside again looks like something very closely related to IMPOSSIBILITY.

It should be suggested here, in the interest of summer auto travel, which grows heavier every day along the lake highways, that the one road sign which mentions the slide area is definately insufficient and is posted in the wrong place to really do any good. It stands just south of the bridge from Tahoe City across the river, at the beginning of highway 89. It says "Road Closed By Slide", but does not mention that the slide is some twelve miles farther on around the lake circle drive. There is no other sign or indication of blocked highway along that twelve miles. If the sign was set farther along the highway and mentioned the distance to the slide area, or if there were other signs along the way giving the distance, it would undoubtedly save many travelers useless miles of driving and a lot of gasoline. On our trip to the slide area, during the few minutes we were there, eight car loads of tourists inquired of us "Why is this road baricaded? and how do we get around to highway 50?"

REGATTA TALK IS ROTARY FEATURE

TAHOE CITY— President Steve Korich presided at last Thursday's luncheon-meeting of the Tahoe City Rotary Club, held at the Tahoe Inn as usual. There were thirty present, including seven visiting Rotarians from other clubs. Visitors included Irving Williams of Bakersfield, V. Stanley Dodd of Turlock, Howard C. Black of St. Helena, Ira Resch of Woodland, Elbert Kedkown of Livermore, Chas. C. Black of Lodi, Bishop Noel Porter of Sacramento and Don Huff of Woodland and Tahoe.

Fred Main of the Tahoe Boat Company was the speaker for the occasion. He spoke mainly on the subject of the Gold Cup Races to be held from Chambers Lodge pier on July 7th and gave the rules and regulations of the American Power Boat Association. He also answered questions by the Rotarians concerning boat racing in general.

Fines totaling $36.50 collected at the meeting were turned over to the local fire department chief to apply on expenses for the Fourth of July fireworks display.

In the course of birthday congratulations among the members Dr. S. M. Dingwall was accorded the special comic-cake and the assemblage birthday song for the occasion.

Placer Will Have Exhibit At Southern State Fair

TAHOE CITY— Two Tahoe region directors who attended the Placer County Chamber of Commerce meeting held at the Auburn Hotel on last Thursday evening were manager of the Tahoe City PUD, C. W. Vernon and Ace Abbott, former manager of the North Tahoe District.

The major business on the agenda was the annual election of officers. Re-elected at this time were President James Dobas, vice-president Harry Stubley of Kings Beach, and secretary Ray Rowe. Betty Velican of Auburn was unanimously voted in as the new treasurer.

Among highlights of the meeting was the unanimous vote of the directors that Placer County Supervisors appropriate $3500 for an exhibit in the approaching Los Angeles County Fair. The Squaw Valley model purchased by the Board of Supervisors last year at a price of $1000 will comprise the main exhibit if the money is appropriated. The model would be moved from the Sacramento fair at its closing on September 11, and entered in the Los Angeles County Fair for its full 17 day run.

Supervisor L. L. Anderson of District 5, who attended the meeting, recommended that a committee be appointed at this time to attend the Supervisors meeting held on July 5th to make special request for the fore-mentioned $3500 appropriation. A committee from each of the Supervisorial districts were appointed, including C. W. Vernon and Ace Abbott from this district. Anderson also recommended that the County Chamber make an effort to induce the State Division of Highways to take over two roads, the one from Auburn to Forest Hill and another the Brockway-Truckee short-cut, in order to lessen the burden of county road up-keep. President Dobas appointed himself as committee of one to consult Senator Harold T. Johnson of Roseville for information as to the best procedure of inducing the state division to take over the roads.

HUGE ROAD FUNDS FOR STATE WILL BE INCREASED BY U. S.

SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Frank B. Durkee, state director of public works, announced that federal highway legislation passed by congress allots $367,500,000 for highway construction in California for the next three years.

After this period, the federal allocation to California will be even greater, Durkee said.

The director said the initial effect of the federal grant will be felt in additional allocations by the California highway commission for acquiring rights of way.

The state will receive $63,700,000 during the 1956-57 fiscal year under the 13-year federal highway construction program.

Acquisition of rights of way now, Durkee said, will clear the way for full speed construction in the years when federal contributions to the state become larger.

At the end of the 13-year period, Durkee stated, California, through use of both state and federal funds, hopes to complete the entire 2,172 miles of interstate system within the state to freeway standards.

Application of federal funds to the interstate system will free large amounts of state funds for other states.

Durkee said the federal allocation for California will be $135 million in 1957-58, and $152 million in 1958-59.

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

See where a couple of our mountain top people did pretty well at Squaw Valley's mid-year ski meet. Babette Hauiesen taking top honors in Class A Women, followed very closely by Starr Walton, our 14 year old whiz from here at Soda Springs.

The summer Red Cross swimming program is off to a flying start. A total of around ninety youngsters checked into the Beacon Hill Lodge pool for the first session. Small fry from 6 years on up will certainly benefit from this program in swimming and lifesaving. The older youngsters receive advanced training at the east end of Donner Lake.

Hill and Zona Schubert, who assist in the Soda Springs Hotel operation during the winter months, are summering at their place on the Russian River. I can't imagine why anyone would want to leave this country in the summertime, but some do. Maybe they like the crowds.

Donner Ski Ranch has now followed the pattern and is featuring rides to the top of Signal Peak. Two huge signs have been erected extolling the magnificient view from the top, and believe you me, it is beautiful. I wonder if the summer trade will eventually surpass the winter trade. The management of the aerial Tramway at Franconia, New Hampshire, told me, during my trip east with our Junior Racers last winter, that almost seventy-five percent of their revenue was from summer visitors. Its all season use certainly makes it a good investment.

Had a phone call the other day from Hannes Schroll. He was inquiring about possible sites near the summit that could be used for a storage garage. Seems that a lot of the Sugar Bowl regulars dislike leaving their cars out in the weather during the winter months. He gave him as much information as we could on such short notice. He said, "Thanks, I'll see you Thursday". We dug up some more information then, and waited all day Thursday, but no Hannes. He did say Thursday, but he didn't say which week.

The warm weather of the past week in the valley has certainnly been bringing an influx of travelers. I made a quick trip to Santa Barbara Friday and returned Saturday. Couldn't help but notice the resort parking areas jammed full of cars Saturday night. Herstle Jones' Nyack Lodge was loaded. As was Rancho Sierra Inn, Rainbow Tavern, Woffords Motel and Donner Summit Lodge.

Did you head about the employer who said to one of his employees, "Don't just do something, stand there"!

State-Wide Meeting Is Called To Form Plan On Federal Road Aid

F. W. Tarr, chairman of the statewide highway committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce, has announced the holding of a statewide conference on the impact of the new federal legislation upon highway construction in California, to be held in San Francisco on Friday, July 27.

The objective of the conference will be to fully analyze all of the details of the new multi-million dollar federal highway measure, especially as it will affect road and highway construction in California.

Typical items to be considered will be: How much additional money can California anticipate under the new program during the next three years? How will the new money be allocated and expended in different parts of the state? How will the program affect construction of "other than interstate" highways? What will be the affect of the new program upon the regular primary and secondary highway system? What will be the extent and the policies to be followed in connection with the accelerated advance right-of-way acquisition program? What will be the policies to be followed in connection with the by-passing of cities located upon the interstate system? Will any new highway conformity legislation in California be required as a consequence of the accelerated federal program? These and other questions will be considered at the all-day conclave.

The conference will be attended by representatives of the federal, state, county, and city governments; highway contractors; automobile and trucking association executives; agriculture and general business interests; chamber of commerce and trade associations; state legislators; representatives of the cement, asphalt, rock and gravel industries; automobile dealers; traffic safety experts and other interested citizens from all parts of the state.

Water Right Applications Are Approved By Banks

SACRAMENTO -(CNS)— Harvey O. Banks, state engineer, announced he has approved water right applications of the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation for the Sly Park project on the Consumnes River in El Dorado and Calaveras counties.

Banks said the decision allows the bureau to divert 110 cubic feet of water per second, and 41,000 acre-feet a year, for the project.

Permits were granted to the bureau as trustee for benefit of land owners and water users within state agencies, Banks said. Water rights acquired under the permits will be appurtenant to the land, and licenses will ultimately be issued to public agencies of the state.

According to Banks, the permits require that releases be made at Sly Park Dam and Camp Creek Diversion Dam for maintenance of fish life.

Applications of the bureau were protested at public hearings last fall by the Southside Mutual Water Company, the Consumnes Irrigation Association, and J. D. Granlees. Other interested parties at the hearing were the El Dorado Irrigation District, which will use project water, and the state water resources board.

A Grand Time

One of the nicest gatherings in a long time was held at the Crystal Bay Club on Saturday evening. Fred Schultz tells me that attending were Pete Koken of the Valley Times of San Fernando Valley. Bob Talbot, Governor Knight's appointee to the California Racing Commission and Mrs. Talbot, Morey Galen of the Valley Cab Company, San Fernando, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Weaver, Frank Campbell, Mrs. Frank Snyder of Van Nuys. The host for the evening was our friend and part owner of the Crystal Bay Club, Slim Laborde, who did a splendid job in welcoming the guests to beautiful Tahoe. After talking to some of these fine people, I found that they were very much impressed with the lake and surroundings, and most of them will be back.

Wedding Bells

During the past week Wayne Thompson and Louise Hendrickson both of Stockton were married and stayed with Ira and Kay Blair of Blair's Cottages, Kings Beach. After a short stay, they will return to Stockton, where they will make their home.

Tahoe Biltmore

Grand opening was held at the Tahoe Biltmore Hotel, Crystal Bay. Cocktail hour was held before the show started, and after enjoying an invitation to a delightful dinner we enjoyed entertainment by the Continentals. Altogeher it was a delightful evening and by the way, with this opening all major clubs are open for the season.

Golf

One of the biggest crowds attended the golf tournament at Brockway, Tahoe City and Glenbrook courses during Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They just about caused a traffic congestion at Kings Beach. Saw Eldon Tonini, Red Anderson and Norman Mayfield playing a game. You know we have a grandstand from our house.

Home Sweet Home

Now it's John and Mrs. Dixon that are back at their home at Crystal Bay. At the beginning of the past winter they were at Palm Springs but the latter part they were at Santa Barbara. Also saw Julius and Neva Gold, who were up here for a few days this past week.

At Summer Home

Hugh and Mrs. Johnson and family are up here spending a week or two at their home on the golf course. Hugh was here just in time for the golf tournament. Sure nice to have our neighbors here for a while.

Up for the Summer

Wyman and Beverly Williams of Pasadena are back for the summer and of course are staying at their home on Brassie Ave. Wee Randy and Scott are with them and I find growing like weeds. Cute little rascals.

Rough Road?

Been over Washboard Alley lately, or should I say the Brockway Short Cut? Well just put up with it for a while, as we shall have a beautiful road there one of these days. I would advise when you go to Truckee next time, take the long way around. Maybe further, but at least you may keep your axles in shape.

Winners

Are we ever proud of our good golfers round Tahoe City. Tony Donadio and Bill Hunter, Tony of Tahoe City and Bill of Lake Forest. This Monday morning saw their names plastered all over the sport pages of all the big newspapers. Tony and Bill edged out a father and son, Carl A. Bechdolt and his son Parky, to win the fifty-four hole invitational best ball team tournament Friday and Saturday. Sunday was a great day on all courses. Congratulations to our two boys, we are proud of them.

Cool Weather

It was a pretty cold morning this Monday. Outside of our house it was 33 degrees. Imagine on the 2nd day of July. Now at noon it is only 57 degrees. The best thing about it as one Los Angeles visitor said it is clear and fresh and no smog to fight.

New Cabin

Ray and Mrs. Davis have completed their home on the golf course. Some time ago they sold their old home and turned around and built a new log cabin, and after looking it over yesterday, it's just beautiful. Davis is in the plumbing business in Reno, but much time is spent by him at the lake.

Improvement

I see the Brockway Hotel management have made over the old club house on the highway, and it looks like a swell place and a big improvement to the community.

New "Grounding" Law For Vehicles Went Into Effect On July 1st

The new motor "grounding" law enacted by the legislature in 1955 takes effect on July 1, 1956, as part of the state's effort to protect the motoring public from damages suffered in accidents that may be caused by financially irresponsible drivers and owners operating on the highways.

Paul Mason, state director of motor vehicles, issued a reminder to all motorists that failure to observe the accident reporting, financial responsibility, and security posting requirements of the California vehicle code may result in the suspension of a car's owner's vehicle registration and license plates, as well as suspension of a driver's license. The new provision now taking effect is the vehicle registration suspension feature, which also requires the owner to store the car at his own expense while under state suspension.

The director said the accidents that must be reported under this law to the department of motor vehicles' financial responsibility office in Sacramento include all those in which any one person suffers injury, death, or property damage in excess of $100. The report must be made on forms provided by DMV and must be submitted within 15 days of the date of the accident. The drivers involved in the accident must make such reports, regardless of blame for causing it. These reports are in addition to any required by local police.

Mason said that drivers and owners may exempt themselves from the security posting and suspension provisions of the law by establishing their financial responsibility. The most common method of doing this is to show the reporting form that the driver was insured under an auto liability insurance policy for at least $11,000 at the time of the accident. He said the department has prepared a leaflet explaining exemptions and other features of the amended law available from all DWV offices.

Dealers, banks, and auto financing firms throughout the state have been notified of a new provision limiting transfer of title of a vehicle whose registration and plates have been suspended.

The director said the amended law will operate with respect to reportable accidents occurring after midnight, June 30, 1956.

But
OH, HOW HE LOSES WHEN HE FINANCES A CAR
He needs to find out about my "Bank Plan." It could save him $100 or more on the total cost of his car. That's because my plan combines low-cost insurance with low bank rate financing and it's easy to use, too — you just select the car and I do the rest. Call me before you buy that next car!

DEER ON HIGHWAY BLAMED IN RECENT VEHICLE ACCIDENT

Among motor vehicle accidents on highways in the Truckee area, reported by the California Highway Patrol during the week of June 21-28, were the following:

Rear-End Bump

A car driven by Theodore Washington Wells of Madera hit the rear end of a car driven by Nicholas Kurshals, Honolulu, last Thursday but no citation was issued by the patrol and no injuries were reported. The mishap occured four miles east of Soda Springs when the Kurshals car was forced to slow down suddenly just over the crest of a hill. The Wells vehicle did not have sufficient time to come to a stop in time avoid the collision.

Dodges Deer

Donald W. Hanson, Sacramento, and Manuel Enos, Walnut Creek, were treated at Tahoe Forest Hospital Monday for minor injuries sustained when a car driven by the former ran off the highway a mile west of the foot of Donner Grade and was wrecked. Hanson told officers Sturcke and Maynard that he turned his car to avoid striking a deer which was crossing the road and the automobile was wrecked against the embankment.

Minor Injuries

Alexander Shish of Minneapolis was cited for passing without sufficient clearance, following an accident two miles west of Truckee last Thursday in which five people were taken to Tahoe Forest Hospital for treatment of injuries. Sgt. Snyder and Stallard investigated. Shish's car collided headon with one driven by Herman Heydron of Del Paso Heights. Beside Shish and Heydron, the injured were Vicki Ann Heydron, Mary Faye Heydron, and Maurine Turner, all of the Sacramento area, and Audrey Shish of Minneapolis.

Driver Escapes

Early the same day, James W. Rector of Palm Springs escaped injury when his car was demolished on a curve 6½ miles from Truckee on the Brockway cutoff. Rector told Patrolman Martin Sturcke that he swerved to avoid a parked pickup and lost control of his car. No citation has been issued but an investigation is being made of the accident.

Safety Chief—

Elmo Granata, former Truckee cobbler, has been named to head the statewide Nevada Traffic Safety Committee. Granata now resides in Reno.

Charles Kitts Named As County Assessor, Loehr Breaks Tie

Charles Kitts of Town Talk was named Nevada County Assessor on Thursday, June 21, in a 3-to-2 vote when Supervisor Henry Loehr of Truckee broke a first ballot deadlock in the board of supervisors by casting his vote for Kitts on the second ballot. The new assessor will serve out the unexpired term of William Tamblyn, who resigned effective July 1 in order to join his sister, Mrs. V. C. Shattuck, in the operation of the Tahoe Theater at Kings Beach.

Loehr's first choice was Les Cicogni of Grass Valley, former deputy county assessor. Supervisors Curtis Clark and Jay Coughlan voted for Kitts while Supervisors John L. Frank and Guy N. Robinson favored John T. Trauner, veterans service officer of the county.

On the second ballot the final decision rested upon Loehr as the others did not change their votes.

Kitts, a native of the county, has been active in many west-end organizations for years and is 1956 president of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce. He is currently foreman of the county grand jury.

Prior to the voting, Phil Scadden, former assessor, spoke on behalf of Miss Elva Jean Cox, now chief deputy assessor. Leonard Prisk of Grass Valley was also under consideration for the appointment.

HUNTING LICENSES ARE NOW ON SALE

Hunting licenses for the 1956-57 license year are on sale at license agents and offices of the department of fish and game throughout the state, the department announced.

Also available are deer tags for the coming season.

Current hunting licenses expire June 30, and the department reminded youngsters under the age of 16 who have never been licensed before that they must pass a hunter safety course before one can be issued.

Names of qualified hunter safety instructors can be obtained from local fish and game wardens and officials of the department.

IF IT'S ANOTHER SMALL COUNTRY YOU'RE SET ON BUYING UP CHEAP, COUNT ME IN FOR A COUPLE OF BILLION. NOT A DIME MORE!

DON'T BE A FOOL! WE'RE AFTER BIGGER GAME THIS TIME. BUT YOU WERE WARM WHEN YOU SAID A COUNTRY--

AH HA!! I THOUGHT SO--YOU'RE NOTHING BUT AN INCURABLE COUNTRY COLLECTOR, McBULLION. WHICH ONE IS IT TODAY?

THIS ONE!!

THAT (CHOKE) ONE!

YOU MUST (GASP) BE STARK, RAVING MAD!

IT'S MERELY A MATTER OF (CHUCKLE) PLANNING, MY FRIENDS! AFTER ALL, THERE ARE ONLY FORTY-EIGHT STATES! YOU'LL SEE THE THE WHOLE FIENDISHLY CLEVER PLAN OUTLINED ON THIS PAPER!

M-MAYBE IT CAN BE DONE!! WHAT A (SHIVER) THRILL THAT WOULD BE!
